RELATIONSHIPS OF HONOUR

"Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it"

1 Corinthians 12:27

Multi-faceted connections between people of all ages in all places for all of life that bring fulfillment to enhance our destiny helping us live a full satisfying life.

Relationships of Honor: Commitment to those people with whom God has knit you lasting for a lifetime in spite of trials hurts misunderstandings and change.

“There was a man all alone he had neither son nor brother there was no end to his toil, yet his eyes were not content with his wealth.

Ecclesiastes 4:8

Two are better than one because they have a good return for their work if one falls down his friend can bring him up but pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up also if two lie down together they will keep warm but how can one keep warm alone, the one man be overpowered two can defend themselves a cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12

Live in harmony with one another, be sympathetic love his brothers, be compassionate and humble.

1 Peter 3:8

While David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph, he learned that Saul had come out to take his life. And Saul's son Jonathan went to David at Horesh and helped him find strength in God. "Don't be afraid," he said. "My father Saul will not lay a hand on you. You will be king over Israel, and I will be second to you. Even my father Saul knows this." The two of them made a covenant before the Lord. Then Jonathan went home, but David remained at Horesh.

1 Samuel 23:15

After David had finished talking with Saul, Jonathan became one spirit with David, and he loved him as himself

1 Samuel 18:1

Therefore encourage each other and build each other up just as in fact you are doing.
